

Further information and to reserve a place contact:

Bethan Marreiros, Administrator,
Group Analysis North,
78 Manchester Road,
Swinton, Manchester M27 5FG
Tel: 0161 728 1633
enquiries@groupanalysisnorth.com

Visit the website:

www.groupanalysisnorth.com

Seminar Venue:

Manchester Metropolitan University,
Gaskell Campus,
Hathersage Road,
Manchester, M13 0JA

Cost:

£45.00 each for GAN members and students of
IGA foundation and intermediate courses.

Reduced rate of £100.00 for all four Friday
Seminars when booked in advance

The IGA Qualifying Course in Group Analysis (Manchester)

Group Analysis and Psychoanalysis Seminars

2011-12 Programme

Group Analysis North

Institute of Group Analysis

"An opportunity for those with an interest in group analysis to develop their thinking alongside others in a creative group environment"

FRIDAY SEMINAR PROGRAMME 2011-12

IGA Qualifying Course in Group Analysis (Manchester) in association with Manchester Metropolitan University

7th October 2011, 10.00 a.m. – 3.45 p.m.

What happens when the Individual Psychotherapist is a Group Analyst?

Presented Cynthia Rogers

Cynthia is a Training Group Analyst, supervisor and teacher who is undertaking research in psychotherapy, looking at the nature of the occupational group. She works with individuals, couples and groups and has a particular interest in how the Group Analytic theory and body of knowledge can inform work with individuals.

Friday 24th February 2012, 10.00 a.m. – 3.45 p.m.

The British Independent School

Presented by Simon Archer

Simon is a psychoanalyst (British Psychoanalytical Association / British Psychoanalytical Society) in private practice in York. He first trained at art school (painting), then as an art teacher. He worked in adult education for several years as an art tutor and then as an art therapist. During six years as a group therapist in therapeutic communities he undertook the introductory training with the Institute of Group Analysis and then trained with the BAP. He worked in private practice in east London and moved to York in 1989 where he established a private practice and trained with the Institute of Psychoanalysis.

He is a training therapist and supervisor for NEAPP (Newcastle) and external examiner for the TCPP (West Midlands Institute). Since the 1980's he has written and lectured about Shame.

Friday 20th April 2012, 10.00 a.m. – 3.45 p.m.

Supervision

How to make the most of Group Supervision

Presented by Margaret Smith

Margaret Smith is a Psychodynamic Psychotherapist and Group Analyst. From 1993 to 2009 she managed staff support services for Health Service Staff including Supervision and Group Psychotherapy. She has also taught on the Tavistock Institute block MA training Consultation and the Organisation. Currently she works privately as a Psychotherapist and Group Analyst. She co-convenes the IGA training, "Using the Group as the Medium for Supervision".

Friday 15th June 2012, 10.00 a.m. – 3.45 p.m.

Projective Identification in Kleinian Theory and The Oedipus Complex in Psychoanalysis

Presented by Gearóid Fitzgerald

Gearóid Fitzgerald is a Psychoanalyst and Consultant Psychiatrist in Psychotherapy who does 150-200 assessments a year for individual and group psychotherapy in the NHS. He has a private practice in Sheffield.

Recommended reading is available for each seminar—contact Bethan Marreiros on 0161 728 1633 or email bethan@groupanalysisnorth.com

Venue: Manchester Metropolitan University