

IGA Courses (Manchester) in conjunction with The University of Manchester
& Group Analysis North

FRIDAY SEMINAR

Friday 7th December 2018, 10.00 a.m. – 3.00 p.m.

"Gender - who defines our identity and what happens when we self determine gender outside the 'accepted' binary?"

Presented by Kay Young

Venue: Ellen Wilkinson Building, Manchester Institute of Education, Oxford Road, Manchester, M13 9PL. This seminar takes place in Block A, Ground Floor, Rooms B4.3, B4.4 & C3.20

Block A is the opposite side to Oxford Road and 3/4 is diagonally opposite the entrance. Look out for the signs.

Programme for the day

10.00 - 11.10	Introductions
	Presentation: 'When Inclusion becomes exclusion - The effects of the Gender Identity Act and the gender binary'.
11.10 - 11.30	Break
11.30 - 12.30	Workshop in the large group exploring self, identity and intersectionalism
12.30 - 1.15	Lunch
1.15 - 2.15	Small groups
2.15 - 2.20	Reconvene
2.20 - 3.00	Plenary and Questions

Required Reading

Cornell, R. (2012) 'Transsexual women and Feminist thought': Towards New Understanding and New Politics, In Signs: Journal of Women and Culture in Society, 37(4), pp 857-881.

Hakeem, A. (2010) 'Deconstructing Gender in Trans- Gender Identities' In Group Analysis Vol. 43(2), pp 141 - 154. Sage Publications.

Kay Young

Kay is a Group Analyst within a specialist CAMHS team in the NHS, working as a clinician with young people questioning their gender identity and seeking to access further national gender identity services within the NHS. She has worked with children, young people and their families/carers for over forty years in a wide variety of settings, most notably Looked After Children, young offenders and within acute crisis services for children and adolescents who self-harm and engage in dangerous behaviours. Her interest lies with marginalised sections of the community who find accessing services and engagement with services difficult either by 'choice' or lack of equality.

Friday Seminar Staff Team

Erica Burman: University of Manchester liaison, Small Group Conductor

Christopher Davies: Friday Seminar Programme Convenor

Billy Smallwood: Small Group Conductor

Gary Robinson: Small Group Conductor