

Supervision for Groups

Group Analysis North offers supervision for Group Analysts who are currently involved in running groups or are thinking of setting up a group.

Being a member of a supervision group is an opportunity for Group Analysts to develop their clinical practice and professional identity alongside peers in a creative, challenging and supportive environment.

Supervision is by telephone conferences for 1.5 hours fortnightly and a termly 2 hour face to face meeting in Leeds.

The membership includes group analysts working in the NHS and Private Practice

Group size: Maximum of 4.

Cost: £58 per session, payable 6 months in advance.

Group Supervisor: Isobel Conlon

Isobel is a Group Analyst and Psychotherapist in private practice based in Leeds. She is a Training Group Analyst and Training Supervisor on the IGA Qualifying Course in Group Analysis (Manchester). Isobel has over 30 years experience of supervising groups in the NHS, voluntary and private sectors
