

Work Reflection Group

An opportunity to develop your understanding of group processes and enhance your groupwork—online and in person groups

The work reflection group is a stimulating, supportive and safe form of supervision group in which participants are given the opportunity to reflect, with others, on their work using group analytic themes and concepts.

Ideal for those who have completed a foundation or diploma course in group analytic groupwork and who want to continue to use the skills learnt in their daily work.

GAN will be running both in person (in Bolton) and online groups.

- Up to 6 in a group.
- 2 x 1.5 hour groups for 10 months online.
- Running monthly on Friday evening
- Explore groupwork with clients within a supportive group environment.
- Consider group processes in organisations and groups within organisations.
- Facilitated by an experienced IGA Training Supervisor.
- Possibilities for further training or supervision after the end of the group.
- Groups start online or in person in September 2026.
- Times: 4.45 p.m.—8.15 p.m. (half hour break at 6.15 p.m.)
